THE MESSAGE.

IT WAS DELIVERED TO CONGRESS AT NOON.

WHAT CLEVELAND SAYS.

Financial Legislation is First to be Considered and Then Tar-iff Reform.

Special to the Democrat.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—President Cleveland's message to congress begins by stating that the present financial plight is not the result of untoward events, nor is it likely to check our national growth and prosperity.

The panic struck timid people, who called on the financial institutions for deposits that were unavailable, causing failures, and surviving corporations are now holding back funds in hand.

This was caused by legislation touching the purchase and coinage of silver by the general government under the law of 1890. The evil effects of this law are constantly increasing.

The bimetallic clause of the law prevents the secretary of the treasury exercising the discretion nominally vested in him. The payment of treasury notes for purchased silver, then redeeming the same in gold, has made the depletion of gold easy by tempting other nations to replenish their stores.

Between July 1, 1890, and July 15, 1893, the gold coin and bullion in the treasury decreased one hundred and thirty-two millions of dollars, and the silver increased over one hundred and forty-seven millions.

Unless government bonds are constantly issued and sold to replenish the exhausted gold, it is apparent that the operation of the silver purchase law in force leads to the entire substitution of silver for gold in the government treasury. This is to be followed by the payment of all government obligations in depreciated silver.

Foreign investors are not only declining to purchase American securities, but are making haste to sacrifice those already held.

Whatever else the people have a right to expect from congress they may certainly demand the legislation condemned by the ordeal of three years' disastrous experience be removed from the statute books as soon as possible.

While tariff reform has lost nothing of its immediate and permanent importance, it must, in the near future, engage the attention of congress.

It has seemed to me that the financial condition of the country should at once, and before all other subjects, be considered by your honorable body.

I earnestly recommend the prompt repeal of the provisions of the act passed July 14, 1890, authorizing the purchase of silver bullion, and that all other legislative action may put beyond doubt or mistake the intention or inability of the government to fulfill its pecuniary obligations in money universally recognized by all civilized countries.

Partial Pardon for Frank Durein.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 8.—One of the most interesting and peculiar cases growing out of the prohibitory law of Kansas and its enforcement is that of Frank Durein, the greatest of the Topeka jointists. Frank Durein has lived in Kansas City for over a year, and has made his headquarters at William Zimmerman's saloon, near the corner of Eighth and Delaware streets. Recently he has purchased a saloon on the corner of Fifth street and Broadway, and placed his brother in charge. Durein in one respect resembled Moses. He would climb to the top of the west bluff and look across the line into Kansas, the promised land, which he dared not enter. Sometimes he would go to the union depot and see some of his friends from Kansas. On this side of the line he was a law-abiding citizen; across in Kansas he was in the eyes of the law a fugitive from justice. Now, in a measure, all is changed. Gov. Lewelling on Sunday granted him a pardon, which, while it will allow his prosecution and punishment by fine, will prevent his being thrown into jail, which is what he has feared most. He is going back to Kansas some day this week to look after business interests. Durein is a quiet, pleasant German of 45 or 48 years, and owns property in Kansas said to be worth from $60,000 to $100,000. It consists of real estate and buildings in Topeka, notes and mortgages and a large ranch in Wabaunsee county.

OUT AT LEXINGTON.

Between 600 and 700 Miners Quit Work Out of Sympathy.

Sympathy for the striking Kansas miners caused between 600 and 700 miners at Lexington and in that vicinity to abandon work yesterday.

About 9 o'clock they left the mines in a body. Most of the strikers were in the employ of the Lexington Coal company, but about 100 of the company's men remained at work.

Sixty miners employed by H. G. Macey, of Kansas City, and 100 of James McGrew's men joined the strikers. The men have no local grievance and may return to work. A meeting of all the miners in that section has been called to determine on a course to pursue. There is a strong opposition to the striking and the result is awaited with much interest.

Was Possessed of a Devil.

OLD ORCHARD, Me., Aug. 8.—A scene not down on the Christian Alliance convention programme was enacted at the camp ground last evening. Just after the close of the last service, when nearly everybody had departed from the grounds, a New York lady who has been in constant attendance at the meetings, but has of late taken no part in the services, approached the platform and informed one of Dr. Simpson's elders that she was possessed of a devil which she wanted him to drive out. The elder called to his assistance several of the brethren and sisters for a season of special prayer. The applicant for the removal of the evil spirit knelt on the ground while the supplications were being offered in her behalf. Suddenly she began writhing and uttering incoherent exclamations.

"Lord, cause the devil to come out of her," prayed the elder, which supplication was echoed by those who surrounded the prostrate woman.

"I won't come out," came a response in a piping voice from the woman's own lips, the declaration being oft repeated.

The prayer was continued about a quarter of an hour, and then the elder and his assistants laid their plea for the devil to come out. As suddenly as she went into the tormented state the woman emerged from it, arose, rubbed her eyes, looked about her, and declared that the devil had been conquered and was no longer in possession of her.

Barn Burned, House Ransacked.

NEVADA, Mo., Aug. 8.—The large barn of Jerry Wilhite, near Sheldon, Vernon county, was burned Saturday night. While he and his hired men were fighting the fire his home was ransacked by parties who were evidently searching for money. A number of hogs, several tons of hay and numerous other articles were burned in the barn. It was insured for $900.

SEDALIA'S TALENT.

IT WAS SEEN TO ADVANTAGE LAST NIGHT.

BEAUTIFUL QUEEN ZEPHRA

Wood's Opera House Filled and the Audience Delighted With the Operetta.

The opera, Zephra, was put on at Wood's opera house last night by home talent, but judging from the crowded house, and the applause given to each part, the play was received equally as well as any professional show was ever received in Sedalia.

Zephra, the Queen of Mythland, was in the hands of Miss Irene Temple, who spoke and acted her part exceedingly well.

Neyerah, adopted daughter of King Decius, was handled by Miss Kate Antes to perfection. Miss Antes has a natural stage appearance, and her singing and acting were just what they should have been.

Decius, the Storm King, was well given by Prof. Robbins.

Juna, prince of Mythland, by Geo. Floyd, was favorably received, but some of his words were lost on the audience by his not speaking loud enough.

Alexis, minister of state, by D. M. Dodge, was well and favorably received. Mr. Dodge has an excellent tenor voice, and each and every word was uttered clearly and distinctly. He never appeared to better advantage.

Solon, the king's herald, did not do Mr. E. W. Greene justice. The gentleman possesses a fine baritone voice and should be given some part where it can be shown to advantage.

A CULINARY PROBLEM.

By MARY CHAHOON.

WE were busy one day in the kitchen, I deep in some cook-book lore, And he perched up on the table Driving a "coach-and-four."

But when I had finished this sentence In a receipt I had found— "Set on the stove and stir constantly," The driver looked around.

And leaving his play for a minute, He whispered in my ear— "How could any one 'set on the stove' And not 'stir constantly,' dear?"

Band and Orchestra. All week, Saturday Matinee.

COMMENCING MONDAY, AUGUST 14!

GREAT CAST! NEW PLAYS!! 25 ARTISTS!!!

Monday Night, "LOVE vs MONEY."

To which Ladies will be admitted Free as usual. Prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Daniel, Hansberger, Johnson and Gatlin, never looked prettier.

After the first scene, the Brownies had the stage to themselves and a rollicking time they had with their snow-balls, with which they "peppered" the audience, with the help of the Sprites.

Miss Hattie Lyon then gave the "Turkish Cloak Dance," accompanied on the piano by her sister, Miss Emma Lyon. Miss Hattie is a graceful and pretty girl and was heartily enjoyed.

The Clowns needed a little more practice, but they looked just as funny as if they had danced together.

Little Aileen Flavin, from Kansas City, danced the "Margarite," and delighted her audience. She is a dancer of no mean ability.

The "La Cigales" were very pretty and danced to perfection. This dance was one of the prettiest, if not the prettiest, of the evening, and the young ladies may well feel proud of their achievements.

The Orioles, or Black Birds, came next and entertained the people with a lively step and some very pretty movements.

The cross made in the last part of the second act, by Misses Lyon, Easton, Beck and Antes, deserves recognition.

Miss Lulu Withers sang a solo, "Love," and was ably assisted by

KILLED ON THE "KATY."

Two Miners Met Their Death While Intoxicated.

On Sunday two miners, Henry Bugg and Jas. Geaton, got drunk at Deepwater.

They left late at night for the mines. About 1 o'clock yesterday morning the night watchman at the brickworks discovered parts of the body of Bugg.

It is supposed he was too drunk to walk and laid down on the M., K. & T. track and the train ran the entire company. The lady has a very fine soprano voice and did not disappoint her admirers.

It would be unfair not to mention the Queen's guards. This drill, given by forty ladies, is an event well worth seeing.

The duet by Mrs. Houx and Mrs. Coleman was well received.

With but two exceptions the play passed off smoothly. The stage hands failed to open some of the transformation scenery and to let down one or two of the borders.

It is safe to say, however, that to-night will see everything in "apple pie order."

Prof. Averill may well feel proud of his opera and the people in it, and to-night and Wednesday night will see crowded houses.

MISTAKEN POLICY.

It is a mistake for merchants and business men to talk too much about hard times.

Matters of enterprise, of business, of trade, are largely matters of confidence.

Destroy confidence and you destroy trade.

Talk to your neighbor or friend until you make him believe that ruin stares everybody in the face, and if he has any respect for your opinions he will at once lock up his money and buy nothing but the actual, immediate necessities of life.

It is an equally serious mistake for business men to abandon ordinary business methods merely because temporarily trade is dull.

Take the matter of advertising alone.

Let the merchants and business men withdraw the advertisements from the newspapers and their customers at once conclude that times are hard, trade dull and the situation serious. Having concluded that everybody else has quit buying, the average reader feels like following the fashion.

It is the part of wisdom to use extra exertions when trade is dull, in order to overcome the prevailing stagnation.

When business is slack go to work and make your store or shop brighter and more attractive; do something more than usual to attract the public eye.

Fix up your sign a little more artistically than ever before.

Write out the most attractive advertisement you can prepare and send it to all of the newspapers which have a general circulation in the territory from which you expect trade.

Keep at it until you convince the public that you are one business man who has confidence in yourself and in your town, and men will hunt you up to form your acquaintance and trade with you.

Don't get the blues!

A DEPRECIATED DOLLAR.

The goldbug press has had a great deal to say about the "depreciated dollar," as they are pleased to term silver coins.

After all the bosh they have uttered they are brought face to face with the spectacle of silver dollars selling at a premium over gold coin.

The New York World of the 5th inst. has the following:

Currency is at a premium. Its scarcity is felt in an aggravating way by not only the bankers but by many of the large manufacturing and business firms with long pay-rolls. Some of these concerns, it is reported, may be compelled to pay their employees in checks. If this be done it is quite within the range of possibilities that the workingmen will be able to have the checks cashed only at a discount.

The scarcest article in the currency line are $1 and $2 bills. Silver dollars come next, with gold coins following closely as a longed-for commodity. As the smallest coin in gold, so far as business is concerned, are $5 pieces, it is of not so much use as silver or small bills. The odd spectacle was presented yesterday of silver being asked for and taken in preference to gold.

In another column of the World to-day will be found this advertisement:

WANTED—SILVER DOLLARS.
We desire to purchase, at a premium of 34 per cent., or $7.50 per $1,000, Standard Silver Dollars in sums of $1,000 or more, in return for our certified checks, payable through the Clearing House.

ZIMMERMAN & FORSHAY,
Bankers, 11 Wall Street.

Thus is all the silly nonsense of the goldbug knocked in the head by the cold logic of facts.

UNDER CIVIL SERVICE.

Perhaps it is not generally known, but it is true nevertheless, so the DEMOCRAT is informed, that the Sedalia postoffice is locked tight and fast under the civil service rules.

This means that the postmaster elected at the coming primary, whoever he may be, will have no appointments with which to reward his friends.

Under the rules and the law at present the postmaster has no voice in filling the various positions in his office; he cannot appoint his dearest friend to a clerkship or as a letter carrier; he cannot even select his own deputy or chief clerk.

All his appointments are made under the civil service rules, after competitive examination.

Neither can the postmaster remove incumbents except on specific charges, which must be formally filed and supported by evidence.

Then when a vacancy occurs it must be filled from a list of "eligibles," that is, applicants who have already passed the civil service examination.

There are several of these "eligibles" who have already been examined and listed for appointment when a vacancy occurs.

This is civil service reform.

Whatever may be said against it, it will save candidates from the humiliation that is frequently put upon them by indiscreet friends promising positions as rewards for personal service.

It places the contest upon the broad plane of friendship for the candidate or patriotism in working for the best man.

There can be no trading or trafficking in the minor positions—no rewards to be earned by work for this or that candidate.

Of course no candidate would offer to appoint anyone to a position in case of his election, but some indiscreet friend might do such a thing in perfect ignorance of the fact that the goods cannot be delivered.

So that it is well enough to let it be known that it is only the postmaster, without power of making appointments, that will be decided by the primary.

The tenth day of August, the date of Missouri's admission to the union, is to be celebrated as a holiday at the Missouri Reform School for Boys at Booneville. It will be an excellent opportunity for all who are interested in the effort to reform incorrigible boys and make them good citizens by learning them how to work, to attend and see the good work Superintendent Drake is doing.

As the DEMOCRAT has remarked on several occasions, the Missouri miners who strike and quit work out of sympathy with the Kansas strikers make a serious mistake. Such a strike can only injure themselves, the community where they live and the men for whom they work. It cannot hurt the Kansas mine owners.

The Pettis county court will, we hope, have the question of the county's responsibility for the care of Chas. Blessing, the insane convict, thoroughly investigated before paying the bills. Blessing became insane while in the custody of the state, and he is in no sense a citizen of Pettis county.

The proposition to come to an immediate vote upon financial reform measures in congress is a good one. The country is not in the humor for delays, dodging and postponement. It is uncertainty that paralyzes business.

The prevailing hot weather is rather trying to those fortunate individuals who are compelled to work, but we should all remember that it is the making of the corn crop.

THE DEMOCRAT believes the coming fair can be made a success if the management will reduce the prices of admission to the grounds to 25 cents.

Guard Mounting To-Night.

The Sedalia Rifles will give a public guard mounting this evening, on the grounds at the Broadway school building, and the Sedalia Military band, in full uniform, will assist in the ceremonies.

Holding Forth in a Tent.

A camp meeting is being conducted in a tent at Twentieth and Ohio streets by Revs. C. W. Wiggins, of Fulton; W. C. Cox, of Booneville, and S. S. Alexander, of Sedalia.

A STUBBORN FIGHT.

THE COINAGE QUESTION THE MAIN ISSUE.

BOTH SIDES STAND FIRM.

Efforts to Agree Upon the Plan of Battle—Delay Not Now Desirable.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The adjournment of both houses yesterday afforded the representatives every opportunity to confer together and compare their views upon the questions that will be at issue in the extra session.

The message did not reach congress, but the president's views are known to be antagonistic to free coinage and to the purchase clause of the Sherman bill, and in all discussions he is conceded to be unfriendly to the cause that is being battled for so persistently by the west and south.

Bourke Cockran, of New York, will lead the anti-silver forces on the floor of the house and for the first time since 1873, they are openly aggressive.

The big, eloquent and fearless New Yorker has been busy conferring with the silver leaders trying to reach an agreement to proceed at once to the discussion of the silver question, even in advance of the appointment of committees and come to a vote without delay.

In a statement last night Mr. Cockran explained that his proposition to Mr. Bland related rather to measures than time.

"The whole question," he said, "is exhausted in three propositions, viz.: First, to repeal the silver purchase act unconditionally; second, to repeal the silver purchase law and revive the Bland act of 1878; third, to repeal the silver purchase law and provide for the free coinage of silver.

"My suggestion is that these be offered to the house in turn and debated as fast as they are defeated, if they should be defeated. Let everybody talk that wants to and on these three propositions everybody can be heard."

"What limit of time do you propose?" "I shall make none that will not be entirely agreeable to Mr. Bland, for it must be of such duration that the house will approve and adopt it. We can do nothing in this way except by general consent. But what I want, and if you please, the anti-silver men want, is that the country may know that this house will go right to work on the subject at once and come to a vote some time. That's the main thing to be desired that the country may be assured of action."

According to Mr. Bland no definite proposition has been offered, though Mr. Cockran had inquired if such a proposition would be entertained.

Continuing, Mr. Bland said: "We do not want to unduly delay action in the premises, but we must have opportunity to offer, discuss and vote upon the amendments which we shall offer to a bill to repeal the Sherman law. This must be granted, or there can be, in my opinion, no agreement regarding the matter."

The position of Mr. Bland is accepted by the anti-silver men as an indication that the free coinage people will stubbornly contest every stage of repeal and yield nothing that is not wrested by the force of superior strength on successive roll calls—if, indeed, the repealing men have the numerical strength to successfully force the issue to a determination.

Very Few Are Traveling.

There has been a marked falling off in the number of guests received at the hotels during the month of July and the early part of August as compared with the same season last year. Traveling men state that the same condition of affairs prevails in other cities.

Buried Money Found.

OZARK, Mo., Aug. 8.—A little son of Sampson Barker, who lives on White river, near Forsythe, in Taney county, made a lucky find a few days ago. The boy spied on the bank, half covered in sand, some rusty tin cans. On investigation he turned out of the old vessels $150 in gold and silver coins. They ranged in date from 1840 to 1850. No one in the neighborhood knows anything about the probable owner. It was likely buried during the war by some one who was killed afterward.

A MISSOURIAN HE IS.

Didn't Have to Go Out of the State for a Minister.

When the Rev. George W. Longan, an eminent preacher of the Christian church in Missouri, died, he left his large and valuable library to be given by his executors to some young and promising preacher. It is announced that the library is to be turned over to the Rev. R. L. Cartwright, who is now preaching in Kentucky. As the long life of the donor was passed almost entirely in Missouri and he was to all intents and purposes a Missourian, it is to be hoped that it will turn out that Mr. Cartwright, the recipient, is a Missourian also, and that his ministry in Kentucky is only temporary. It would seem strange if the executors could find among the many young and talented ministers of the Christian church of Missouri no one fit to receive Mr. Longan's bequest. It surely is not necessary to go to Kentucky for clerical as well as political talent.—Kansas City Star.

Rev. Cartwright is a resident of Pettis county—a Missourian in all that the word implies. He has been attending college in Kentucky, and may have done some preaching there, but Missouri is his home, and the remembrance was most worthily bestowed.

AMUSEMENTS.

Stater's Lyceum Theatre company's engagement for one week commencing next Monday, August 14, furnishes Sedalia with high grade amusement at a popular price. Several members of the company are no strangers to our people. The advance sale of seats has already shown the appreciation of their merit. Next Monday night the scenic comedy, "Love vs. Money," will be produced, to which ladies will be admitted free as usual. The usual Saturday matinee at 2:30 p. m.

A $2.50 Excursion.

The Missouri Pacific will run an excursion from Sedalia to St. Louis on Sunday, August 27, the fare for the round trip being only $2.50. There will be ten coaches, and the excursionists will have eleven hours in St. Louis. The train will leave here at 6:45 a. m. and reach St. Louis at 12 m. Returning, it will leave St. Louis at 11 p. m. and arrive here at 5 m.

A Sunday School Picnic.

About 100 members of the Broadway Presbyterian church Sabbath school, of which J. G. White is superintendent, are enjoying a basket picnic in the grove at Beaman today. They left on the M. & K. T. train at 9 o'clock this morning and will return at 5:55 p. m.

THE CONRADS DECLARE WAR.

Three More White Caps Fall Victims and a Bloody Vendetta Extends.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 8.—The White Caps of Boone township, Indiana, burned the house of the Conrads last night.

Yesterday three riderless horses owned by three White Caps, John Kendall, Wm. Fisher and Wm. Hubbell, were found. It is thought that their owners have been killed by the Conrads, who returned from Kentucky to-day. They say they have three more men to kill. It is thought they are in hiding in the woods.

Harrison county is excited as it never was before over the murderous ambushade, and everybody is going armed. The Conrads are asking relatives to help them and a bloody battle is expected in the next twenty-four hours.

Error as to Time.

Yesterday's DEMOCRAT stated that O. M. Brooks, of the West Side Pharmacy, had sold thirty gallons of soda water last week. It should have read thirty gallons on Sunday, which is a very fine business in that line.

Wanted.

Young man, good address, good reader, to take position of treasurer of traveling exhibition. Must have $250 for half interest; money guaranteed from receipts in 60 days.

Address "Reliable,"

DEMOCRAT office.

A GRAND WORK.

New York Women Making War on Diseased Cats.

Merry war is being waged by a band of thirteen women on all the diseased cats of New York. Says Miss Devide, one of the workers:

"Something must be done for vagrant cats. They lurk in the dark corners of thousands of tenement houses suffering from hunger, and they are dangerous to human health, for many have diphtheria, or consumption and other human diseases, so they might help to spread cholera germs."

Detailing her methods, she said: "We go out in pairs or singly, generally at night, and carry baskets lined with oil-cloth. Provided with a quantity of cat meat and a bottle of chloroform, we are ready for business. "We seize and drop the cats into the basket. Sometimes we use catnip. That's the stuff. I've had twenty-five tabbies and Toms rolling at my feet at a time, and it's such fun to pick them up kindly and drop them into the basket. When the basket is full of squirming, wriggling and caterwauling avenue and tramp cats I spray a few drops of chloroform from an atomizer into the basket through an aperture, and in about five minutes they are dead."

"I prefer to leave the bodies in Fifth avenue and the fashionable cross streets, on the stoops of rich people, because they are carted away soon. I've had lots of fun dumping a basketful of dead cats on the stoop or in the vestibule of a Fifth avenue mansion."

THE DESPISED SPARROW.

A Government Ornithologist Commends Them as a Table Delicacy.

"It does not seem to be generally known that the English sparrow is a superior article of food, indeed a real delicacy," writes a government ornithologist in a short monograph, prepared as a result of an inquiry set on foot by the agricultural department.

A desire to gratify epicurean tastes may not have inspired the department to pursue this line of investigation, for in the same report the hope is expressed that the table qualities of the despised bird may recommend it speedily to popular favor, not only because it supplies a delicate and wholesome article of food, but because "its general use will tend to diminish the rapidly increasing swarms which in many parts of the country have become a veritable scourge."

Nevertheless the ornithologist finds that "throughout Europe the sparrow always has been held in high esteem as a table bird, and in great Britain sparrow pie has come to be regarded as fairly typical of all that is savory and appetizing. The young at the time of leaving the nest are about two-thirds as heavy as their parents, and if properly prepared, form the most tempting morsels imaginable."

"Thousands of sparrows are sold to restaurants annually in some cities, and often are served to unsuspecting customers as mere birds or ortolan."

THE RETIRED SHOWMAN.
He Had a Bitter Experience With the Bearded Lady.

"Yes," said the retired showman, "it is curious how hard luck will follow a man when once things get to going against him."

"For instance?" said a friend. "Well, when I was younger than I am now, I was in the museum business. I had a lot of freaks that I sent around the country, and they were making money for me by the peck. The best one that I had was a bearded lady. It was in the early days of bearded ladies and they were good attractions. My lady had whiskers a foot long and a mustache that would have made Jones, of Binghamton, green with envy. The beard was no fake, either, and she was featured in every town that she visited. I thought that I had a card that would be good for a couple of seasons at least. Just as things were getting rosy she took sick and died."

"That was hard luck," said the friend. "Hard luck!" replied the retired showman, "hard luck ain't no name for it. Besides losing my freak, she left a wife and two children that I had to support for six months."

An Indian Romance.

The dowager maharajah of Mysore, who recently died, had a remarkable career. While scarcely 10 years of age she insisted on sharing all her younger brother's studies, and in five years she mastered Sanskrit, Canarese and Marathi, while not neglecting music, drawing and needlework. When 16 she was chosen as the fourth bride of the late maharaja, but before she could be sent for her father, who was a petty official, was summoned to court to answer for the short revenue of his village. Only when ordered to be whipped was he discovered who he was. He was forgiven, the marriage was celebrated the first lucky day, and the young queen's benign influence was at once and thenceforth felt in the affairs of the state.

Different Kinds of Forgiveness.

The Breckinridge referred to in Dr. Briggs's letter as belonging to the "reactionary school of theologians" was the celebrated Presbyterian minister of Kentucky. He was engaged in many bitter controversies, one of which was with Mr. Crittenden. At the conclusion of one of his fierce attacks on that gentleman, in which he had used the strongest epithets, he said: "But may God Almighty forgive you, as I do." Tom Marshall, after reading the diatribe, said: "That's Christian-like; but if God Almighty forgives Mr. Crittenden as Dr. Breckinridge does, won't he catch hades in the other world?"

HOW ABOUT THIS?

CAN THE CITY COLLECT RENT FOR FIRE HYDRANTS?

A SNAG HIT LAST NIGHT.

The Matter Laid Over Until the Next Meeting, When There Will Be Music.

It was rather warm for a protracted session of the council last night, but it was had nevertheless, and Street Commissioner Hyatt was kept busy supplying ice water.

The full board was present, and his honor, the mayor, presided. The first dash out of the box was the reading of the minutes of the four last meetings, after which they were approved.

PETITIONS.

Petitions were presented as follows: For the abatement of the dumping ground nuisance in North-east Sedalia; for the condemnation of all wooden walks from the railroad tracks to Broadway, and for a wooden sidewalk on New York avenue.

The two former were referred to the board of health and street and alley committee, respectively, while the latter was referred back to the petitioners for additional signatures.

A KICK.

A communication from E. T. Brown complained that the city had incurred unnecessary expense for him in building his sidewalk, and the matter was referred to the street and alley committee for investigation.

IS NO TRUST.

A communication from County Attorney Hoffman, in regard to the alleged "insurance trust," was read. Mr. Hoffman took the ground that there was no trust, and also attached a letter from the attorney general of the state, to the same effect. The matter was referred to the city attorney.

WANTS A FAVOR.

J. C. Farmerlee asked permission to build another story on the rear of his property on West Main street, and it was referred to the committee on fire department, with power to act.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

A resolution was adopted for paving the alley bounded by Fifth and Sixth and Ohio and Massachusetts streets. Bids were ordered advertised for, and also for the macadamizing of Engineer street from Third street to the railway track.

SEWER CONTRACTS.

J. W. Laster was awarded the contract for constructing the sewer in district No. 9, at 42½ cents per lineal foot.

There was only one bid for the sewer in district No. 8, that of W. H. White, and it was rejected because it was considered excessive. New bids were ordered advertised for.

BOND APPROVED.

The $8,000 bond of W. H. White for the paving of East Third street, with John Cunningham and Edward Hurley as sureties, was approved.

RATE OF TAXATION.

An ordinance fixing the rate of taxation for the ensuing year was read three times and passed, the figures being as follows: For general expense, 60 cents on the $100 valuation; interest and coupons, 40 cents; sinking fund, 40 cents; fund for sewers or payment of sewer bonds, 10 cents.

Property owners at Nineteenth and Montgomery streets were present and asked for certain street improvements, and the same were promised as early as possible.

ORDINANCES PASSED.

Ordinances were passed as follows:

Providing for water mains and hydrants on Kentucky street, from Broadway to Fourteenth street.

Providing for the macadamizing of Main street from Washington avenue to Mill street.

Providing for the macadamizing of Main street from Moniteau to Washington avenue.

Providing for the macadamizing of Main street from Moniteau to Grand avenue.

Establishing a grade on Second street from Missouri to Park avenue.

Providing for the condemnation of all wooden walks on Boonville street, from Emmett avenue to Engineer street.

Providing for a like condemnation on Prospect street, from Main street to the railway tracks.

ONE LAID OVER.

An ordinance providing for establishing a grade on West Fourth street was laid over, after which a delegation of spectators from that thoroughfare withdrew.

THE MAYOR'S WANT.

Mayor Stevens called attention to the necessity of fifty feet of 15-inch sewer in West Sedalia, and the matter was referred to the sewer committee, city engineer and city attorney.

REFERRED THE MATTER.

An ordinance establishing a grade on Fourth street, from Ohio street to Thompson avenue, was referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

ENTER, TROUBLE.

An ordinance providing for the collection of a rental of $3 a year for each fire hydrant in the city was introduced, and the chair at once opposed it.

Mr. McKenzie also thought it would be unwise legislation.

Mr. Hansberger spoke in favor of the ordinance, as did Mr. Olmsted.

Mr. Looney said $3 per annum was seven per cent on the $45 a year rental received by the company from the city and he thought it was too high.

ACTION POSTPONED.

After considerable discussion, the ordinance was laid over until the next meeting, as was also an ordinance providing for the collection of a rental from telegraph companies for the use of the streets and alleys for telegraph poles.

BIDS FOR LUMBER, ETC.

Bids for furnishing lumber until January 1, 1874, were ordered advertised for, and also bids for furnishing 500 feet of hose.

THE MARSHAL REPORTS.

Marshal DeLong read his report for July, and at the same time presented some facts and figures in regard to what had been accomplished by the police department since he entered upon the duties of chief. He contrasted fourteen months' his work with a like term of his predecessor, and claimed that he had done over $4,000 better for the city than the gentleman whom he succeeded. Notwithstanding this, the council had dispensed with his clerk and had treated him badly by so doing. The salary of marshal was not sufficiently large, Mr. DeLong thought, and he did not care for a re-nomination under existing circumstances.

Adjourned to meet next Monday night.

SKIPPED OUT AGAIN.

Dr. Goodwin, of Cancer Fame, Takes His Departure.

Dr. Goodwin, of cancer fame, who returned from Oklahoma a few weeks ago, announcing that he had wearied of the life he was leading and desired to reform, has evidently changed his mind, as he has again departed from Sedalia, and the supposition is that he has joined Belle Bratcher in Oklahoma.

Thirteen years ago, it will be remembered by many readers of the DEMOCRAT, the doctor deserted his family here and left the city in company with Belle, the family domestic, who was already the mother of one illegitimate child. During all these years his wife and children had supposed him dead, when, lo and behold, he returned as suddenly as he had disappeared.

An effort to effect a reconciliation with his wife proved futile, as did also a demand that she share her property with him, so a couple of days ago he packed his few earthly possessions and left, the general opinion being that he has returned to the woman with whom he has lived in open and notorious adultery for the past thirteen years. A good riddance to bad rubbish, truly.

Removal.

To my patrons and the public of Sedalia: I take this opportunity of thanking you for the very liberal patronage extended to me in my former place of business just vacated for want of room to accommodate the increasing demands. I therefore solicit a continuation of your favors in my now spacious, thoroughly ventilated, healthy and modern built new quarters, situated on Fourth street, one block west of the court house.

Special care taken of boarders entrusted in my hands, both in regard to their feed and health.

Respectfully,

JOHN A. COLLINS.

Could Cut His Heart Out.

Mr. Pike, a traveling nurseryman, is in trouble at Sedalia for preferring other women to his wife. A recent letter from the regular wife says: "I could coolly plunge a dagger through your infernal black heart." Small wonder Pike left.—Kansas City Star.

The Teachers' Institute.

The Pettis County Teachers' institute will open Monday, August 14, and continue two weeks. Let every teacher who can, be present. Teachers from the country desiring places to board will be assisted by writing me.

GEO. W. DRISKELL,
County Supt.

THE RAILROADS.

H. McPherson, the Boonville contractor, was in town this morning. D. F. Clark, of Jefferson City, tie agent for the Missouri Pacific, was at Sicher's last night.

M. Joachimi, the Versailles contractor, who is interested in the proposed north and south road, was at Kaiser's this morning.

Henry Young, the M. K. & T. brakeman, is laid up at home, suffering from blood poisoning, the result of a cut on his wrist.

Superintendent Allen and Superintendent of Bridges and Buildings Martin, of the M. K. & T., came in from the north last night and passed south.

An able paper on "Entasis" is contributed to the current number of the Railway Age surgical column by Dr. W. B. Outen, chief surgeon of the Missouri Pacific railway, St. Louis.

On November 1, it is stated, all ticket collectors will be taken off the Big Four lines. The heavy World's fair business is assigned as the reason for not dismissing them on July 1.

The "Katy's" Fight Continued.

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas and the International and Great Northern railway injunction case was called in the district court at Galveston yesterday. The International made application for the hearing to be continued until August 14, in order that it might take depositions of "Katy" officials in St. Louis and New York regarding the ownership of stock in the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road of Texas and of Kansas. This was resisted by the attorneys of the "Katy" system, but the continuance was granted by the court, with the warning that the case would positively be taken up on the 14th and carried through to a finish.

Used on the Pacific.

A cast basic steel bolster for freight-car trucks has been invented and patented by Mr. M. R. Schaffner, master car builder of the Missouri Pacific railway, St. Louis. These bolsters have been subjected to hydrostatic tests of 100,000 pounds without causing any deflection or damage. The bolster is made of one casting, and weighs between 400 and 500 pounds. The Missouri Pacific railway is rapidly equipping its freight cars with these bolsters, about eighty bolsters being used for repairs alone on this system every month.

Missouri Pacific Literature.

The Missouri Pacific general passenger department, which is always well to the front in a class of railroad literature of interest to settlers, has just issued a new illustrated pamphlet and a new map folder relative to the Indian territory, Oklahoma and the Cherokee Strip. There has already been a great demand for the latter, which contains a fund of valuable information. A pamphlet on Louisiana is likewise another interesting addition to the Missouri Pacific's library of useful information concerning lands traversed by its system.

Special Excursions to the World's Fair.

The Missouri Pacific railway has made arrangements for a cheap trip to the World's fair, and will run special excursions to Chicago at greatly reduced rates on the following dates: July 24th and 31st and August 7th. The advantages of this route are many, owing to the elegant through service and magnificent equipment. All particulars concerning rates, leaving time of trains, limit of tickets, etc., furnished by H. L. BERRY, Ticket Agent, Missouri Pacific.

Smoke "Americanite" cigars.

Fayette's Postmaster.

Hon. John D. Tolson was chosen postmaster of Fayette at the democratic primary held there Saturday. The gentleman is well known in Sedalia, and his friends here will join the DEMOCRAT in extending congratulations on his success.

Housekeeper Wanted.

Wanted, a good white woman about 35 years old for housekeeper. Good wages to right party. Address, with references, "Q," DEMOCRAT office.

Winter Wood.

The Sedalia Coal and Fuel Co., have 200 cords of wood that must be moved this month. Now is the time to buy your winter wood. 630 East Third street. Tel. 255.

A CLEVER PIECE OF WORK.

The feat of lassoing and killing a Grizzly Single-Handed.

George Kenison, who is in the employ of the cattle department of the Kern county land company, California, was riding in the Coast Range mountains, near Carissa, looking after stock, when he came upon a grizzly bear. When first seen the bear was sitting on its haunches. Kenison made for the bear and got it started down the gulch. He kept behind it until it came out on the Carissa plains. Then he raced quickly up to it, fired a shot from his pistol into its back, and, while passing, threw his lasso over its neck and then straightened out the rope. The horse was greatly frightened, and took good care to keep the rope taut; but it was a long-distance fight, as there was about sixty feet of rope between the bear and the horse.

Kenison, however, kept his horse under perfect control. When the bear would clutch the riata he maneuvered with the horse so as to break the bear's hold. He circled around and around with good horsemanship and perfect coolness, all the time keeping the rope tight around the bear's neck, and he actually choked the grizzly to death. J. E. Hunter, who handles the herds for the cattle department, saw the struggle from a distance and put his horse to its speed in order to give all the help in his power, but before he could reach the scene of combat the bear lay dead and Kenison had conquered it single-handed. The grizzly weighed 900 pounds. Kenison is a small man of slight frame, and does not weigh over 130 pounds, but he bears the reputation of not knowing what fear is. His horse only weighs about 900. It was Kenison's nerve, coolness and superb horsemanship that enabled him to perform the feat of lassoing and killing a grizzly single-handed.

HOW LAKE TAHOE FORMED.

The Result of Volcanic Upheaval in an Age Long Gone By.

Major J. W. Powell, director of the United States geological survey, thus describes the origin of Lake Tahoe: "In geographical times not long ago, as speaks the scientists, but very long ago, as speaks the chronicler of human follies, there was a deep valley on the eastern slope of the Sierra Nevada at the headwaters of the Truckee river. About this valley towered granite mountains. But earthquakes came, rents were opened in the rocks, and from the fissures poured monstrous streams of lava. One of those fissures crossed the lower end of the valley, and through it poured floods of molten rocks. Stream after stream issued, to cool in solid sheets and blocks, until a wall was built across the valley 2,000 or 3,000 feet in height, and above it was a deep basin 500 or 600 square miles in area. The storms that fell on the granite and volcanic mountains rolled in rivers to fill the basin, and Lake Tahoe was created. When filled at last its waters overflowed the rim of lava, and the Truckee river now springs from the Tahoe fountain. Its deep waters are dark with profundity, like the clouds of a stormy sky, but about its shores a few shallow bays are found, and emerald waters, like fountains of beauty, encircle the deeper and more somber lake. Back from the waters forest-clad slopes rise toward the heavens, and above are seen naked crags and domes of granite."

"OLD MAID."

How the Boys in a Public School Denied the Name.

It was my good fortune to be present at a reading lesson given by one of the middle classes in a public school one day, when, the word "bachelor" occurring in the course of it, the teacher desired a definition. The first boy called upon decided that it meant "an old man what ain't married," but another changed this to "any man that ain't married." This prompted their teacher, who is young, bright and very mischievous at times, to inquire what they thought of when they heard people talk of "old maids."

One young hopeful calmly announced that any woman over 20 was an old maid, and the class agreed. Then from behind the desk came the question: "Am I an old maid?" Only two pupils were consistent, the remainder were too gallant to say "yes," and excitedly answered, "No, you ain't"—marked emphasis on the "you."

But one young diplomat thought it wasn't fair to put the age lower than 30, thus giving his teacher a chance out of it.

Tried Beyond Endurance.

A girl in a Maine village, who made her home with her aunt, was often disturbed by evidences of the old lady's indifference to everything but the welfare of her own material possessions. One day, in going down cellar for some butter, she tripped and fell heavily quite a distance. The maiden aunt rushed to the door, and peering down into the darkness, called out sharply: "Dye break the dish?" "No!" thundered back the niece, for once thoroughly aroused; "no, but I will!" and she shivered it with hearty good will against the cellar wall.

Cold Baths Without the Plunge.

An admirable way to take the morning bath by those who dread a daily plunge into cold water is recommended by an authority as follows: Stand in hot water deep enough to cover the ankles, fill a basin with cold water and sponge the body off quickly. Dry and rub vigorously, and get into flannels before drying the feet. It is the rubbing more than the water that is needed. Sponging off gives the excuse for the after rubbing, and the good result is gained.

"Royal Ruby" Port Wine.

If you are reduced in vitality or strength by illness or any other cause, we recommend the use of this Old Port Wine, the very blood of the grape. A grand tonic for nursing mothers, and those reduced by wasting disease. It creates strength; improves the appetite, nature's own remedy, much preferable to drugs; guaranteed absolutely pure and over five years of age. Young wine ordinarily sold is not fit for use. Insist on having this standard brand, it costs no more. $1 in quart bottles, pints 60 cts. Royal Wine Co. For sale by A. S. McGowan.

Not Much Interest Taken.

The advertised meetings of the Library association and Hospital association did not take place yesterday afternoon, as there was not a quorum present in either case.

Express Schedules Filled.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Aug. 8.—All the express companies doing business in the state have filed their schedule of rates with the railroad commissioners, required under the new law. The commissioners will now undertake the task of establishing equitable rates and prohibit pooling, rebates, etc. The law is a very strong one, and was prepared by the speaker of the house, T. W. Mabrey.

"Americanite" cigars are the best.

Notice is hereby given that the city council of the city of Sedalia, Missouri, will receive and consider bids or proposals for the paving of Fifth street from the west line of Ohio avenue west to the east line of Grand avenue, as provided by an ordinance of said city, entitled, "An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled, 'An ordinance providing for the paving of Fifth street from the west line of Ohio avenue to the east line of Grand avenue,'" passed April 30, 1893, and approved April 30th, 1893, by repealing section 1 of said ordinance, and enacting a new section in lieu thereof, for the purpose of changing the grade of said street so as to conform to the curb as now set. Passed on the 27th day of July, 1893, and approved on the 27th day of July, 1893.

All bids shall be based on the specifications and conform to the provisions and requirements of said ordinance and shall be filed in the office of the city clerk not later than 5 o'clock p. m. on the 14th day of August, 1893, and shall be sealed.

City council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

A NEEDLE IN ITS FLESH.

What Caused the Baby of Mr. and Mrs. Knau to Cry.

The little 13 months old babe of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knau, living a short distance north of Nevada, has been suffering for some weeks with apparently no cause, as its appetite was as good as usual.

The parents noticed a protuberance on the right side of its spine which, when touched, seemed to occasion the child great pain. Yesterday they took the child to Dr. Stanhope, in Nevada, who cut it open and discovered a needle imbedded in the tender flesh.

When taken out the needle measured one and a half inches in length. It is not known how the needle came there, whether swallowed by the child or stuck into its body while crawling upon the floor.

Windsor Creamery Burned.

Sunday night about 11:30 o'clock the Windsor Creamery building, owned and operated by Thos. Jewell, caught fire and was totally destroyed. It was one of the oldest creameries in Missouri, and has been considered the only successful one operated in the southwest. The building and contents were valued at $4,000. There was no insurance.

A Grasshopper Pest.

Grasshoppers are destroying corn fields, orchards and vineyards a few miles south of Nevada. After stripping the leaves from the apple trees and eating the few apples upon them, they attack the bark of the tree and strip it. Grapes are being cut from the vines by the hoppers. The variety of the pest is apparently one which is a native of this section. Turkeys are feeding and fattening on them.

The Populist Strength.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 8.—The total vote of the entire populist party in the house resolved itself into a figure seven, as brought out by the vote for Jerry Simpson for speaker. As Jerry did not vote for himself the whole strength of the party is only eight, one less than in the last congress when Watson, of Georgia, was a member of the house.

FOR CATTLE STEALING.

A Vernon County Man's Bad Way for Raising Funds.

Dennis Wilson, a farmer of the northeast part of Vernon county, has been jailed at Nevada on commitment from Justice Dunaway, for stealing forty-four head of cattle.

He took seventeen head belonging to T. C. Kincaid on the night of July 17 and shipped them from Harwood to Kansas City.

On the night of the 2d he took twenty-seven head of cattle from Brockman & Kincaid and shipped them from Harwood to Kansas City, going with them to market.

On his return he was arrested and confessed his guilt. He says two other men were implicated with him in the thefts, but refuses to give their names.

Wilson has lived in that neighborhood for some years and owns a small farm. He says he needed money and adopted that means to better his condition.

Whose Child Is It?

John Anamosa, who resides south of town, and who will be remembered as a witness in the Williamson murder case, was in town last night and reported to the authorities that some unknown man had left a two-year-old child at his (Anamosa's) home yesterday morning, and had failed to call for it later in the day, as agreed upon. As no information could be obtained leading to the identity of the stranger, Mr. Anamosa returned home and will care for the child until there are further developments in the strange case.

Circuit Court Adjourns.

An adjourned term of the Pettis county circuit court was to have commenced this morning, but Judge Field sent word from Lexington that an adjournment would be taken until Tuesday, September 19. There was nothing to be tried except tax suits, and owing to the financial stringency it was deemed best not to push the cases until money matters ease up a little.

A Will Probated.

The will of the late Silas Mathews, of the Beaman neighborhood, was admitted to probate to-day. The estate is bequeathed to the widow during widowhood, but should she marry again it is to be divided among the children. Letters testamentary were issued in Mrs. Mathews' favor.

Tried the Mad Stone.

J. F. Luke, who lives near Arthur, Vernon county, was in Nevada yesterday with his two children, for treatment with a mad-stone. His children were bitten by their dog, Friday, and he was bitten yesterday by the same dog. He is satisfied that the dog had hydrophobia, as the stone adhered to all the wounds.

STILL MORE BLACKS.

THEY HAVE ARRIVED AT WEIR CITY, KANSAS.

THE STRIKE SURELY LOST.

There Are Many Strikers Returning to Work and Others Anxious to Do So.

WEIR CITY, Kas., Aug. 8.—Keith & Perry received another train load of 140 colored miners from Alabama last evening and placed them in No. 6.

They have posted notices for their old top hands at No. 5 to report for duty and have detailed a colored contingent from Nos. 6 and 8 to clean up No. 5 ready for running.

Additional men will be received in a few days to fill up No. 5 and the company will then prepare to put still more into No. 7. No stockades will be built for either 5 or 7, as the company intends to maintain a heavy armed guard as long as needed and will arm its miners.

The Kansas and Texas Coal company is pushing its stockade at mine No. 23 very rapidly.

The company expects to be running the shaft with colored miners inside of ten days. About twenty more of the old miners started to-day at the Kansas and Texas shaft No. 47.

This makes about thirty diggers working at 47 and there are about the same number at 18. A number of others will start in to-morrow morning and the indications are that as many men as can obtain work will drift back in the next few days.

No one doubts that the backbone of the strike is completely broken and it would be declared off were it not for two classes of men. One is those whom the companies will never re-employ and who have nothing to lose and a living to gain by keeping the strike on.

The other is that class which had rather live on charity than on the fruits of their toil, and will never do a stroke of work so long as their commissaries are supplied. For every day that the strike lasts from now on the commissary department will be responsible. With supplies stopped, the one class would go to work and the other leave the country.

A BIMETALLIST PLAN.

Colonel Fiske Talks of a Plan for Free Silver.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Colonel A. C. Fiske, of Colorado, a delegate to the silver convention, has remained in the city in consultation with prominent bimetalists from all sections of the country perfecting plans to force congress to give the nation free coinage of silver and some measure of justice to the debtors and producers. He stated to a reporter to-day that a determination had been reached to use every possible argument to convince the east that it was in the interests of all classes to restore silver and give the country a proper per capita circulation with which to do business and if the east persisted in reducing the volume of money which would enslave the west and south, that a combined effort would be made by those sections to wipe out the protective tariff, to pension every soldier who served in either the federal or confederate armies, their widows and orphans, and to enact a law providing a graduated income tax for that purpose.

Teachers Meet at Warrensburg.

The District Teachers' institute began its three weeks' session at Warrensburg yesterday. The attendance is voluntary, and only those holding first grade certificates from county institutes are allowed to attend.

The idea of the promoters is to have the district institutes incorporated into the regular state school. Law Professors J. J. Campbell, G. H. Howe and J. A. Merrill, all of the state Normal school, are the instructors. The attendance is very light.
